12th grade English
100 points possible

The assignment has been posted to our Google Classroom, complete with directions, attachments, and forms. Students have been assigned three different productions (1971, 2006, and 2010) of Act 1, Scene 1 of Macbeth via YouTube. They are to watch all three productions (less than six minutes in length) and complete a comparison between the three different productions and his/her interpretation of the play, which we read in class.

Students will open a Google Doc to complete the assignment and attach it to the Google Classroom.

Questions to consider while watching: Which production is closest to my interpretation? How is each the same/ different from my interpretation? Which production do I prefer? Which do I think best represents the opening scene of Macbeth and why?
