

Walking for Health—J. Lacks
Get up and walk! We will keep track of miles and heart rate to progress monitor.
* Jr. Civitans

Character Education through film text—M. Summers and M. Walker
This course is designed to build character through the use of film texts (possible film texts include The Andy Griffith Show and the Duck Dynasty series)

Cards and Boardgames—L. Chumley
Come and learn a host of card games and board games. This group will learn a variety of different card and board games and the etiquette which accompanies each game.

Tailgating Games - Smith/ Walls (Field House)
Corn Hole, horse shoes, washers, and much more!

SCHEDULE

August 22	Guntersville Pep Rally
September 5	Class meetings for Homecoming
September 12	Spirit Olympics
September 19	Pirate Enrichment
September 26	Albertville Pep Rally
October 3	Pirate Enrichment
October 10	Pirate Enrichment
October 17	Arab Pep Rally
October 24	Etowah Pep Rally
October 31	Senior Pep Rally Sardis
November 7	Veteran's Day Program
November 14	Pirate Enrichment
November 21	Pirate Enrichment
December 5	Pirate Enrichment
December 12	Pirate Enrichment

Pirate Period 2013-2014

WE ARE BOAZ!!!

GARY MINNICK, PRINCIPAL

PATRICK WILLIAMS, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
ALLISON HAYGOOD, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

EXPECTATIONS OF EXCELLENCE---
EVERYDAY, BY EVERYONE

907 BROWN STREET
BOAZ, AL 35957
256-593-2401

BOAZ HIGH SCHOOL
EXPECTATIONS OF EXCELLENCE---
EVERYDAY, BY EVERYONE

907 BROWN STREET
BOAZ, AL 35957
256-593-2401

Warehouse 13—J. Lowery

Do you enjoy the science fiction show Warehouse 13? Come look at historical artifacts and their “true” nature and effects on current people.

Introduction to Acoustic Guitar—K. Elkins and A. Bryant (Elkins room)

Come to this introductory course/moderate level course focusing on guitar skills. Students would learn how to tune the instrument, play simple chord progressions, play simple finger pickings, and practice popular songs selected to the student’s level of skill. (Each student must bring his/her own guitar).

*First Priority, Mu Alpha Theta, and Scholar’s Bowl

Disney/Pixar Movie Critics—L. Sullivan

Enjoy watching Disney/Pixar films? But, have you ever critiqued one of these films? Learn techniques to make you a more detailed viewer of film texts.

Baseball Basics—S. Bright

This course will introduce you to the game of baseball via the study of terminology and analysis of basic baseball coaching strategies and techniques. You will also delve into the history of the game.

Grilling 101- A. Keenum and Hinton (Choral Room)

Would like to know how to grill out your foods? Students will learn about simple processes of grilling foods. Students will not be required to bring any materials for this course.

History’s Mysteries and Conspiracies—J. Smith

Students will explore various mysteries and conspiracies in world and U.S. history. Students will investigate and research these topics and determine their own personal theories of what could have been the possible outcomes to these historical events.

Music History and Influence—T. Bowden

Students will explore musical influences through the ages.

Math for Fun—A. Otinger

Join us for logic puzzles, brain teasers, and real life math challenges!

I need a scholarship (juniors and seniors only)—

B. Boddie and D. Hays

Students will learn how to complete scholarship applications, and they will receive assistance with writing scholarship essay responses.

*Interact

The Great Outdoors—K. Stewart

This course will teach students hunting and archery skills.

*FFA

The Black Army—K. Cochran

Do you like showing your school spirit? Join other students who love to show school spirit and pride by working collaboratively to organize The Black Army game nights for football and basketball seasons.

Color for Fun—A. Gardner

Students will be engaged in various coloring activities. Students might be asked to provide personal crayons and markers for this course.

Event Planning—A. Shrader

Let’s plan together! Would you like to know how to plan weddings, family reunions, pageants, proms, birthday parties, etc.? Learn techniques, tools, and budgeting resources to plan an event.

*FCCLA

Fantasy Sports—E. Whaley

Want to learn the “in and outs” of fantasy sports? Join others and form fantasy sports teams and compete against each other online.

Ping Pong – Gaskin/Pendergrass (Girls Gym)

We will learn the rules and have fun playing ping pong. We will discuss the terminology and history of PING PONG!!!

Digital Scrapbooking – J. Walker

Students will design an online scrapbook!

Read for Fun!!! Littleton(meet in library)

We will read a variety of stories, novels, poems, articles, and much more for FUN!!!

All about Apps – Megan Keenum

Students will be required to have an Iphone OR Ipad for this class. Students will learn about applying apps to real life.

Classic Rock and Classic Cars with Clark!

We will study classic rock and classic cars. We will read the lyrics and interpret the meaning of many classic rock songs. Do you love classic cars? We will research and discuss classic/muscle cars!

Pin It!—R. Ballentine and D. Cole

Students will learn how to do simple crafts from Pinterest.

*Honor Society and HOSA

Improvisation and other acting techniques—J. Davis

Students will learn improvisation skills and other acting techniques. This activity is similar to charades. Participants will gain more confidence and creative abilities through this course. It will serve as a great introduction for theatre techniques.

*ART

Zumba—R. Roberts

Students will learn how to dance popular Hispanic dances while staying in shape.

*Spanish

Broadway Baby!—H. Left

Students will learn and study the hits of Broadway

*SGA

Genealogy—D. Willis

Students will learn how to trace their family trees via using the Internet for assistance.

*FBLA

Scuba - C. Grochowalski

Students will learn how to scuba dive. We will also research great diving spots and watch underwater videos.